

Journal of Legal Economics
Style Sheet Instructions for Contributors

Papers Section

Manuscripts submitted for publication in this section of the Journal should be original research and will be vetted through a double blind review process.

1. Contributors should e-mail manuscripts to David Schap at dschap@holycross.edu.
2. The Journal of Legal Economics follows the author-date style prescribed by the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th Edition. Bibliographic entries should be listed alphabetically at the end of the manuscript under the heading "References." References cited within the text should use the author-date system. The last name of the author followed by the year of publication should be enclosed in parentheses and usually placed at the end of the sentence before the punctuation with no comma between author name and year, i.e., (Ray 1991). Free on-line websites that will create the references according to the Chicago style are available from BibMe (<http://www.bibme.org/>) and WorksCited4U (<http://workscited4u.com>). On-line websites that will create the references for a small fee include Easybib (<http://www.easybib.com/>).
3. Manuscripts should be submitted as a Microsoft Word document. They must be double-spaced using a Times New Roman 12 point font. For complex equations (i.e. more than mere subscripts and superscripts), please build your equations using the Equation Editor within Microsoft Word.
4. Tables and figures should be created in Microsoft Word or Microsoft Excel. Each Table and Figure should be placed on a separate page and numbered consecutively.
5. The first (title) page should contain the manuscript's title, author's title and affiliation, complete mailing address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address. The author(s) should only be identified on the title page. The second page should start with the title of the manuscript and an abstract of 150 words or less.
6. The use of footnotes or endnotes is discouraged. However, if information cannot be incorporated in the main text, endnotes should be placed at the end of the manuscript, preceding the reference page.
7. Manuscripts that have been published elsewhere or that are being considered for publication at other journals should not be submitted.
8. A submission fee of $50.00 must accompany your manuscript (there is no fee for members of AAEFE). Payments may be made via Pay Pal at <http://aaefe.org/jle/>.

Reviews and Cases of Note Section

As implied by the heading, manuscripts submitted for publication in this section are reviews of court decisions, statutes, or other relevant aspects of the legal environment affecting forensic economists and their practice.

Manuscripts submitted for this section of the Journal undergo editorial review by three of the seven section editors, as opposed to double-blind peer review. Manuscripts should follow the preceding guidelines and should be submitted to Paul Bjorklund at paulbjorklund@aol.com or Thomas Ireland at ireland@umsl.edu.

Data Points Section

This section of the Journal focuses on empirical data, Internet sites, computer software, and other such resources that are useful in the practice of forensic economics. Manuscripts submitted for this section of the Journal undergo editorial review by the two section editors, as opposed to double-blind peer review. Manuscripts should follow the preceding guidelines and should be submitted to William H. Rogers at rogers@johnwardeconomics.com or Gary Skoog at gskoog@umich.edu

Documentation Guidelines

The Journal of Legal Economics follows the author-date system of documentation set forth in the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th Edition. To assist our authors, we are providing examples of reference list (bibliography) entries for various types of sources. Please make certain that the reference list of the article you have submitted for publication conforms to this style.
